

American Memorial Park

Working with Northern Mariana Islands

By the Numbers

Almost every American city and town claims a little bit of the National Park Service. Communities invite us to help them. Together we build trails and playgrounds, return historic buildings to productive use, revitalize neighborhoods, expand affordable housing, protect watersheds, recognize and promote local history, and introduce the next generation to stewardship opportunities. When we combine our expertise and resources we can accomplish great things.

36 National Register of Historic Places listings

4,622 hours donated by volunteers (in 2010)

2 National Historic Landmarks

$281,435 in Land & Water Conservation Fund grants
(since 1965)

$7,327,928 in historic preservation grants

865 objects in national park museum collections

3 threatened and endangered species in national parks

These numbers are just a sample of the National Park Service's work. Figures updated 12/2010.
